EXPERIENCE THE MUSEUMS

Tampere is the home of some of Finland's most unusual museums. Here you can visit the world's only Moomin Museum, try being an agent at the Spy Museum, or play 70's arcade games at Museum Centre Vapriikki. Spend a day at Vapriikki to see and experience several exhibitions at once. The gems of the Art Town Mänttä, the Serlachius Museums, are easy to explore: just hop onto a museum bus from the Tampere bus station or train station.

NURTURE YOUR BODY, MIND AND SOUL IN THE SAUNA

Tampere has been crowned Sauna Capital of the World. No wonder — there are more than 30 public saunas in the Tampere area. We've listed a few tips below; for information on all public saunas in the region, go to saunacapital.com

34. Saunaravintola Kuuma. Enjoying the gentle steam of an urban smoke sauna, and an after-work dip in fresh lake water, is more the rule than an exception. Laukontori 21

35. Rajaportti sauna. Journey back through time in Finland's oldest public sauna still in use. Pispalan valtatie 9

35. Hiedanranta communal sauna. A tub or garden hose provides the cooling (as there's no lake nearby), and sauna-goers provide the warmth of this free-of-charge, open to all sauna. Tehdaskartanonkatu 38

36. Kaupinoja Sauna. Enjoy a sauna and a dip in the invigorating waters of Lake Näsijärvi, on almost every day of the year. Kaupinpuistonkatu 7 A

36. Rauhaniemi sauna. A beach, two saunas, a lake with clean water, a chance to go swimming in the summer and winter... What more could you wish for? Rauhaniementie 24
